LOST AND FOUND

Today we welcome the Wade family to the 9.30 service for baptism. It's the sacrament that demonstrates our entering into the people of God, the body of Christ. It reminds us that process begins with God's grace seen in sending Jesus to come to save the lost even when we don't ask for or even want it, hence the willingness to baptize children. It's brought about by the baptism Jesus underwent for us, his death on the cross and the new life we enjoy through the Holy Spirit. It represents the cleansing, the forgiveness, the renewal he gives us but for it to mean anything, for it to be effective calls for a heartfelt response, that of repentance and faith. Our prayer for these two boys, for each of us who are baptised is that, when of age, our faith shows itself in love, obedience and service, of dying to self-interest and to sin, rising to new life, walking in Jesus' footsteps come what may. We live this life not in isolation but in community, being God's hopeful people and agents of love, truth and grace to the wider world.
