Old Church — New Life

24th September 2017

From John Crysostom on Prayer

Prayer is the light of the soul, giving us true knowledge of God. It is a link mediating between God and man. By prayer the soul is borne up to heaven and in a marvelous way embraces the Lord. This meeting is like that of an infant crying on its mother, and seeking the best of milk. The soul longs for its own needs and what it receives is better than anything to be seen in the world.

Prayer is a precious way of communicating with God; it gladdens the soul and gives repose to its affections. You should not think of prayer as being a matter of words. It is a desire for God, an indescribable devotion, not of human origin, but the gift of God's grace. As Saint Paul says: we do not know how to pray as we ought, but the Spirit himself intercedes for us with sighs too deep for words (Rom 8:26).

Anyone who receives from the Lord the gift of this type of prayer possesses a richness that is not to be taken from him, a heavenly food filling up the soul. Once he has tasted this food, he is set alight by an eternal desire for the Lord, the fiercest of fires lighting up his soul.

THIS WEEKS READINGS:

Luke 11:1-13

Colossians 1:3-14

Psalms 96

Title: Means of Grace - Prayer

MISSIONS

Please pray for Bush Church Aid.

Bush Church Aid has a heart for people living in remote and regional Australia. They are committed to going the distance to reach Australia for Christ. Also BCA is working to develop a new generation of culturally diverse Christian leaders to serve in the bush, and to equip leaders already on the ground for faithful and fruitful ministry. But that's not all so for more info see Michael Stuart or go to www.bushchurcaid.com.au/content/how-we-serve/gjjjaw
