How Should A Christian View Wealth

The Christian view of wealth should be derived from the Scriptures. There are many times in the Old Testament that God gave riches to His people. In the New Testament, there is a different standard Ephesians 1:3 tells us, "Praise be to the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who has blessed us in the heavenly realms with every spiritual blessing in Christ."

In Mark 10:23, "Jesus looked around and said to His disciples, 'How hard it is for those who have riches to enter the kingdom of God!'" In Luke 16:13, Jesus spoke about "mammon" (the Aramaic word for "riches"): "No servant can serve two masters; for either he will hate the one and love the other, or else he will be loyal to the one and despise the other. You cannot serve God and mammon." The greatest verse for New Testament believers concerning riches is Philippians 4:19: "And my God will meet all your needs according to his glorious riches in Christ Jesus." 1Timothy 6:17 gives a warning to the rich: "Command those who are rich in this present world not to be arrogant nor to put their hope in wealth, which is so uncertain, but to put their hope in God, who richly provides us with everything for our enjoyment." James 5:1-3 gives us another warning about riches that were wrongly gained: "Now listen, you rich people, weep and wail because of the misery that is coming upon you. Your wealth has rotted, and moths have eaten your clothes. Your gold and silver are corroded. Their corrosion will testify against you and eat your flesh like fire. You have hoarded wealth in the last days."

To summarize, Israel was given earthly promises and rewards as God's chosen people on earth. Many people desire to take their blessings, but not their curses. God does not condemn anyone for having riches. Riches come to people from many sources, but He gives grave warnings to those who seek after them more than they seek after God and trust in them more than in God.
