THE BOND OF THE SPIRIT, STRONGER THAN BLOOD OR WATER?

In some ways the Christian faith in the West is suffering a crisis of authenticity. One of the reasons I've heard in conversation or seen in the media again and again and again is the simple fact that though we were called to love one another we do the exact opposite. I'm not talking about religious wars and such atrocities that have been done in Christ's name but rather the simple fact we often treat each other badly for no good reason. The history of Protestantism in the last 500 years has been marred by constant division and schism. In the US alone the number of Protestant 'denominations' is ridiculous.

Again the story of Paul and Barnabas and their separation over John Mark reminds us that there are times when Christian brothers and sister may well need to separate but all too often churches face division factionalism because Christians wound one another, sometimes unintentionally and sometimes intentionally and we simply do not forgive or reconcile. We hold onto our hurt, our 'injustice' our disagreement and don't even try to reconcile in any meaningful way. We walk away and find another church, carrying our hurt with us. There are churches full of Christians who move from one church to another carrying their raw, festering wounds with them who wonder why they find fellowship unsatisfying or disappointing.

Today's portion of Matthew's gospel is a stark, powerful and challenging reminder that in Christ's name we are to be better than this. I am more and more convinced that if revival is to come to Australia and the West it will only come when we wake up to who we are in Christ and how we ought to treat each other when we disagree or hurt one another. When the wider world sees God's people taking these words to heart, something wonderful could well happen, something wonderful for the glory of God as we truly follow in his footsteps.

Notices For This Week

PRAYER MEETING BEFORE THE SERVICE

A few of us meet and pray for KAC before the 9.30 service at 9.00 to 9.15 in the crèche. Come join us and see what God will do!

1Thessalonians 1:5 ... our gospel came to you not simply with words but also with power, with the Holy Spirit and deep conviction.

PLEASE PRAY

- For the complete healing of our sister and brother in Christ Kate and Laurie Plichta's 6 month old grandson Isaiah. He is suffering from suspected pneumonia and he needs healing of his airways, his chest congestion and his feeding routine.

PRAISE THE LORD!!!

Our brother in Christ Clive Nicholls has been informed that he is in REMISSION! Thank you and praise you Lord!!! Clive would like to also thank everyone for their prayers.

THANK YOU

I'd like to thank everyone who attended the fabulous Good News Singers concert on Sunday. A special thanks to Rob Sproule as it was a magic afternoon. The Chaplains were thrilled with the music and also with the chance to talk about the work they do and love. They are also most grateful for all donations. This is how their salaries are paid so fund raising is an important part of YouthCare work. Many thanks to you all. Dee Everitt on behalf of the Chaplains and YouthCare.

ANOTHER THANK YOU

Thank you for all those who attended and who also helped out for B's Commissioning.

THE TRUE REASON FOR THE SEASON

We need more people for the Christmas Choir and we definitely need more women because at the moment there is only two on the list, we especially need sopranos. Also, we need more men to join the choir. Come and join so we can sing the praises to our Lord Jesus' and celebrate His birth so the people at the Shopping Centre can hear that He is the "True Reason for the season!"

NOVEMBER ROSTER TIME

Yes it's less than two weeks away from November. So if you are unavailable for any particular Sunday services could you please let us know by email to the church office.

HALLOWEEN! AN OPPORTUNITY TO WITNESS FOR CHRIST?

On Halloween children will come freely to your front door expecting treats. Why not treat them to a bag of lollies which includes something Christian e.g. a tiny bible, prayer book, gospel tracts, etc. Something cute! Something they might just keep on their dresser. Let Halloween be an opportunity for God's purposes. (Just a suggestion if you aren't already doing it).

Church Matters

In the next few weeks the Diocese will be holding Churchsafe courses. It is recommended that as many people as possible attend these courses. The aim is to make us aware of predatory behaviours so that we keep our children safe from those in the community who might think that churches are soft targets. If you are a welcomer or in children's ministry it is highly recommended that you attend a course every 3 years, however, the more people who attend, the better prepared and watchful we will be.

To register for one of the advertised dates, please follow the link below. On completion of the course you will be given a certificate. We would appreciate a copy of this for the church files.
