Some Quotes by

A.W. Tozer about the Church

"Popular Christianity killed the Reformers, jailed the Quakers and drove John Wesley into the streets. When it comes to religion, the crowds are always wrong."

—The Next Chapter After the Last

"The temptation to modify the teachings of Christ with the hope that larger numbers may 'accept' Him is cruelly strong in this day of speed, size, noise and crowds. But if we know what is good for us, we'll resist it with every power at our command."

—The Size of the Soul

"Compromise will take the pressure off. Satan will not bother a man who has quite fighting. But the cost of quitting will be a life of peaceful stagnation. We sons of eternity just cannot afford such a thing."

—That Incredible Christian

"We are sent to bless the world, but never are we told to compromise with it."

—The Next Chapter After the Last

"Cultivate the acquaintance of God more than the friendship of men and we will always have abundance of bread to give to the hungry. Our first responsibility is not to the public but to God and our own souls."

—God Tells the Man Who Cares

"Personally I have for years carried a burden of sorrow as I have moved among evangelical Christians who somewhere in their past have managed to strike a base compromise with their heart's holier longings and have settled down to a lukewarm, mediocre kind of Christianity utterly unworthy of themselves and of the Lord they claim to serve."

Church Matters

Yesterday, our dear friend, Dee Everitt, did a chaplathon in aid of the Chaplains in our State Schools. Dee is our church representative on the Youthcare council. The Chaplains are funded partly by the State Government, donations from the local churches and fund-raising events like the chaplathon and the Chaplains' dinner. If you missed the opportunity to sponsor Dee, I am sure she would gratefully accept any donations in the next few weeks.

Our own dear Louisa works as chaplain in two local Primary Schools: Davalia and Marmion. It was lovely to welcome several chaplains to our combined service at the end of last month. It is a blessing for us to have these committed Christians working in our schools and not something that we should ever take for granted. Although the chaplains are not permitted to 'preach' they are able to answer questions, about their faith, from teachers, parents and children. They are able to walk alongside through difficult times and offer their encouragement and support. In this way they show God's love to those around them. Please keep the chaplains in your prayers that God would sustain them at this very busy time of year and allow their actions to bring Christ's light into their schools as Christmas approaches.

In Christ, Lynne Smith (People's Warden)
