Old Church — New Life

7th August 2016

WE WAIT BY DOING!

An old maxim regarding teaching says 'we learn by doing' which is so very true. As we think about the return of the Lord Jesus, affirmed through the church's history in the creeds its worth asking how we are to wait. Growing up in Queens Park my youngest brother had a friend whose mum was a single parent though she spent little time parenting. Instead she wrote on the pavement and her windows about the Lord's return and in the meantime her son ran amok. Jesus teaches his disciples that we wait by doing, by believing, by trusting, by obeying, by loving and by serving. We don't spend our time in self-indulgence and we don't spend our time looking up in the sky wondering. We spend our time by making the most of the time to engage in mission, in good works and service and in building up community, all in the name and in the footsteps of the Lord Jesus. So when he comes we're ready, our consciences are clear and our faith clear for all to see.

THERE IS A LOT OF JOY IN GIVING

Last Sunday, Kevin Mullen had an opportunity to thank Fritz Baumgartner for bringing kumquats to the church. Kevin had made marmalade with them, and brought a jar to church to give to Fritz. He also offered a prayer for him, "May Almighty God, the provider of all good things, preserve you. And may you never get in a jam, or even worse, in a pickle. Amen."

Note: Please contact the office or Michael if you wish to carpool to either Women's or Men's convention.

Quote:

We should be holy people eager to greet our Lord when He returns, ready at any moment for the trumpet's call, people of optimism, busy in evangelism, hands to the plow, eyes on the prize.

David Jeremiah
